Wine and Beverage List

by darren chin

Our love of wine isn't just about the drink in the glass, important as that is. It comes from a love of the regions, their distinct cultures, cuisines and history and of course, their people.

France is our first love, which is entirely fitting as Darren lived and worked there for a few years. During annual visits to the classic regions, and in particular, to the lesser-known villages where wonderful wines are made by modest people who coast safely under the radar of wine speculators and trend-chasers, we indulge our passion, renew our friendships and learn lessons with every new vintage.

In putting this list together, with a strong selection by the glass and in smaller formats, we invite you to join us as we tour our favourite parts of Planet Wine, an odyssey which we trust will prove as delicious as it is rewarding and educational.

BY THE GLASS

“By the Glass” usually means cheap, mass-produced wine at a heavy mark-up. At Bref, we believe it could be so much more. Like a statement of intent, or a nice, warm hug to welcome you to our house. Because we care, and so do our friendly, hardworking winemakers.

2. 2019 Leeuwin Estate, Art Series Sauvignon Blanc, Margaret River, Australia

"Very impressive in terms of the fruit freshness and the degree to which this has been contained and crafted into a wine of true class. The palate has finesse with power, as well as citrusy flavours holding sway over more tropical fruits for now." - James Suckling

This is an open and instantly drinkable wine. Green apple and citrus flavors are uncluttered by too much texture, just enough to express themselves in this young wine."

REDS

	Score	Glass (RM)	Bottle (RM)
5. 2016 Craggy Range Pinot Noir, Martinborough, New Zealand This Pinot Noir has a delightfully dark cherry hue in the glass with a hint of crimson. Dark aromatics of ripe cherry, sage, dried bark and thyme emerge on the nose, while a wonderful integration of ripe red fruits.	WE 91	70	328
6. 2015 La Reserve Malartic, (Chateau Malatic Lagraviere) Second label of Chateau Malartic Lagraviere, Bordeaux red blend, The wine is savory and classic with velvety tannins.		70	338
7. 2018 Dandelion Vineyards, Lionheart, Barossa Valley hints of bramble and dark chocolate. Generous mouth filling sweet blackberry, raspberry and plums cover the palate with lashings of sweet spice. Firm but fine tannins and dark chocolaty nuances continue throughout the lengthy palate with youthful finish.	JR91	60	288

A LITTLE SWEET FINISH

8. 2010 De Bortoli, "Noble One" Botrytis Semillion, Riverina, New South Wales, Australia Mid-orange, green hue; a hedonistic bouquet of apricot jam, biscuit dough, cinnamon and clove; the palate is extremely sweet, unctuous and long, with the caramel sugar lingering for a staggeringly long time; be prepared, this is sure to take you on a ride. .		48	410

Aligoté, the forgotten grape of Burgundy, is often relegated to a mixer wine for Kir cocktails. ROSE WINES

A much underrated and under-appreciated category of wine, especially for our Malaysian climate. For us, Rose ticks all the boxes: the freshness and lightness of white wine, the tantalising berry character of red wines, paired with that sexy, irresistible blush...

Beaujolais (Gamay)

Not "Nouveau", but a new trend sweeping the wine world. From the crus (best vineyards), serious wines can be made which extol the virtues of the Gamay grape: light to medium body, with lots of delectable red berry fruit and soft tannins. Ridiculously drinkable and food-friendly.

SPARKLING COCKTAILS

It seems a shame to forget the classics. After all, they are classics for a reason...

	Glass (RM)
1. Kir Royale Felix Kir, mayor of Dijon in Burgundy after World War II, popularised the original Kir by offering it to overseas visitors, killing two birds with one stone as it promoted the local products crème de cassis and aligoté, a thin, acidic white Burgundian wine. The "Kir Royale", using Champagne, was a bourgeois blandishment. Using Magnien's excellent Crémant de Bourgogne, we have brought the drink back to its more modest roots while maintaining its effervescent party spirit.	38
2. Aperol Spritz Perhaps the most refreshing drink known to mankind. Ice, Aperol, Magnien's Crémant de Bourgogne and a dash of sparkling water for good measure	38
3. Mimosa This classic brunch cocktail was first popularised after the Earl Mountbatten served it to the Queen during a visit to the South of France. But it was served not at brunch but as a pre-dinner drink. Well if it's good enough for the Queen and Mountbatten, it's good enough for us! A perfect way to cool down as you get ready for your Bref experience.	38
